

18 December 1973

Comments By

STAT

As I remember the meeting mentioned in paragraph 2.b., the participants unanimously agreed that remodeling the west end of the first floor of the main building was completely unacceptable inasmuch as this was really another stopgap measure which was not only costly but a waste of prime space and most disruptive of ongoing work. Everyone present voted for a new on-campus building to house the computer hardware and related functions for the entire Agency.

STAT